Orphans' Home—The Committee on Orphans' Home made the following report which was read and adopted:

ORPHANS' HOME.

It gives us great pleasure to report the Home in first class condition in every respect. The physical, intellectual, moral and religious life of the children in the Home receive careful attention and development. Forty-four children have joined the Church this year and all above the age of ten are now members.

The property is now valued at more than $90,000, free of debt, substantial improvements have been made during the year and there is a cash balance on hand of more than $6,000. These facts speak in glowing terms of the efficient and business-like management of Rev. J. B. Randolph, as well as indicating how dear the Home is to the hearts of our people.

We recommend the reappointment of D. W. Babb and Mr. Rowan Thayer as directors of the Home, and also the election of Mrs. W. W. Scales, Jr., to membership on the Board, as a representative of the Woman's Missionary Society. We also approve the action of the Board in selecting Mrs. S. F. Riley as Field Secretary for the Home, her duties being to visit the pastoral charges with a view to securing suitable homes for orphans and also to finding those who should come under the care of the Home. We append the report of the Board of Directors, as a part of this report, that it may go into the record.

Children.

The number of children received, 84; number returned to the Home, 17; total received, 101; number gone out for themselves, 14; died, 1; placed in good homes or adopted, 20; placed in homes of relatives, 84; total gone out, 119; leaving in the Home on Nov. 1st, 1917, 185.

Financial.

Balance on hand Nov. 1st, 1916.....	$ 3,183.31
Regular receipts from Nov. 1st, 1916 to Nov. 1st, 1917.....	18,130.23
Work Day	5,991.63
Total receipts	24,121.86
Disbursements	21,119.95
Balance on hand Nov. 1st, 1917.....	6,548.44

School.

We have a good school at the Home with nine grades. We employ five teachers besides the music teacher. The school ran eight months last year. Two of these teachers were reared in the Home. The boys at Warmack Farm attend the Warmack school.

Religious.

We have a good Sunday School and Epworth League which meet every Sunday. We have religious services each day. Rev. W. H. Lane, pastor of the Rankin St. Church, Jackson, held our meeting this year. Forty-four children have been received into the Church this year on profession of faith.

Improvements.

A six-foot concrete walk has been extended out Northwest Street, and we have built something more than 350 square yards of walk on the orphanage property, at a cost of more than $500.00. We have built one new horse barn, and have material on hand for another cattle barn. We have added some more machinery to our laundry equipment, and we have tinted the interior walls of the dining room, office, library, three dormitories, and the halls of the first and second floors of the main building at a cost of several hundred dollars. Our boilers have been repaired, and our heating plant improved.

Warmack Farm.

The crop at Warmack Farm has been very good. We harvested several hundred bushels of corn, threshed five hundred bushels of oats, and 182 bushels of wheat. We have gathered a fine lot of hay, about 400 bushels of potatoes, and a nice lot of soy and velvet beans, also a few peas. We have our hundred ton silo filled and we are putting in a lot of oats and wheat. We have a number of good cows in our dairy herd, some of which are registered Holsteins.

The term of office of Rev. D. W. Babb and Mr. Rowan Thayer expire with this session of North Mississippi Conference, and we request the election of their successors. Rev. J. B. Randolph declined re-election and Rev. B. F. Lewis of the Mississippi Conference was elected to fill his place and we request his appointment by the Bishop. We heartily commend the faithful services of Bro. Randolph during his administration and would bespeak for Bro. Lewis your loyal co-operation and support.

T. M. BROWNLEE,

Efficiency Conference—The Committee arranging for the Efficiency Conference of the past year reported as follows:

EFFICIENCY CONFERENCE.

In accordance with the action of the last Annual Conference, an Efficiency Conference was held in Grenada College, June 5-8, inclusive. The Conference was in every respect a pronounced success, the attendance being one-third larger than that of the previous year, more than 100 ministers and a fair number of laymen having registered, while the local attendance showed that the town of Grenada was greatly impressed by the Conference.

The Committee secured the services of Bishop Murrah, Dr. George R. Stuart, Dr. H. C. Howard of Emory University, Dr. H. M. DuBose, Dr. E. B. Chappell of the Sunday School Board, Dr. F. P. Manget representing the Board of Missions. We again endeavored to secure the service of Dr. McMurry of the Board of Church Extension, but at the last moment other engagements prevented his coming.

The buildings of Grenada College lend themselves admirably to the needs of such a conference. The management met every need and all those in attendance were loud in their praise of the accommodations furnished. A nominal price was charged for board, barely enough to cover actual cost. The Conference passed resolutions asking that another be held on similar lines next year.

The expense of the Conference was borne by the Board of Church Extension, the Sunday School Board, the Board of Missions and the Board of Education, each of which appropriated $75.50 for this purpose.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the United States Government in developing the most physically fit soldiers for the great struggle against autocracy in which we are now engaged, has placed the ban upon both the whisky business and the restricted districts of the cities near which the cantonments are located;

Therefore, be it resolved, That the members of the North Mississippi Conference of the M. E. Church, South, in conference assembled, most heartily endorse the action of our Government in the steps taken in these matters.

Be it further resolved, That it is the sense of this body that the churches and citizenship of our nation should rally to the support of our Government and join in the work of uplifting humanity by making a drive for national prohibition and abolishment of the restricted area in the communities of our nation.

Temperance—The committee on Temperance and Social Reform made its report which was read and adopted as follows:

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL REFORMS.

Progressive prohibition legislation in our Union is a subject of deep interest to every intelligent patriot of the commonwealth. We rejoice in the great and rapid progress prohibition has made throughout the world, and especially in our country during the last twelve months.

In the recent November election, the prohibitionists carried New Mexico. Ohio was very close—the "wets" slightly in the lead. The District of Columbia closed its saloons October the first. The first of last June, the law prohibiting the importation of spirituous liquors into dry states became effective. This law has reduced the whisky traffic to the minimum.

We are heartily grateful for the simultaneous efforts which our state and county officials are making in the enforcement of our prohibition laws.

In our future efforts, let our motto be "On To Washington." We will not sheathe our swords until the accursed business is driven out of our country.

We recommend:

1. That each friend of the cause write his representative to vote for the pending bill now before Congress, the purpose of which is to give each state a chance to wipe this nefarious business from the map of the United States.
2. That our preachers now turn their attention to the national phase of the question.
3. That the President of this Conference appoint two delegates, one clerical and one lay, as delegates from this Conference, to the National Anti-Saloon League Convention which convenes at Washington December 10-13.

We, your Committee, incorporate the following, expressed by the Young Men's Christian Association:

1. That we proclaim anew our confidence in the Gospel of the Son of God as the only and sufficient solution of the social and national ills from which humanity today is suffering;

2. That we lift our voice against all exploitations of the weak by the strong, all injustice, all lawlessness and disorder, all greed and hate and evil passion, wherever in individual or social life we see such things practiced;

3. That we as an organized body, representing a great and powerful church in the world, put ourselves on record as unalterably opposed to lynching, race riots, unfair and unjust treatment of our fellow citizens of African blood, unfairness to immigrants and aliens of all races who may be living among us;

4. That we use our pulpits, church press, daily newspapers and every other laudable avenue of publicity, to call the attention of our people to the need of fairness, brotherly love, and unceasing prayer in order to win the battle against lawlessness, disorder, hate and prejudice in our national life.

G. L. JONES, Chairman.

E. G. MOHLER, Secretary.

Character—The Bishop resumed the call of Question 22, Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? The following reported their work for the year and their characters passed: W. O. Wagoner, J. H. Smith, W. S. Lagrone, J. J. Brooks, B. F. M. Bullard, J. A. Hall, J. H. Mitchell, E. M. Shaw, W. S. Shipman, J. T. Lockhart, A. A. Martin, R. H. Ruff, J. H. Ingram, E. B. Sharp, John Ritchey, W. C. Lester, O. L. Savage, W. N. Duncan.

Lay Activities—The Committee on Lay Activities made the following reports which were read and adopted.

LAY ACTIVITIES, NO. 1.

It is with deep regret that a survey of the laymen's work in this Conference for the past year—as thorough as possible under the circumstances—compels us virtually to reiterate the report of last year, which was in substance, that this word had “the name to live but was dead.” If there was any doubt as to its vitality then, there is less now; for in no charge in the Conference that we have heard of are the layment thoroughly organized under the General Conference plan and actively at work. A decent burial would now seem to be in order and if an epitaph be wanted, this might be suitable: “Languished for years, little interest manifested in the case; finally died from neglect.”

That a great Church enterprise carefully planned to accomplish ends so desirable, seeking to enlist more fully and effectively both the men and the means of every congregation in more hearty co-operation with the pastor in promoting every interest in the charge, should have had such a history and have come to so deplorable a state, is either a reproach to the Conference or a just condemnation of the plan. Which of these it is, this Conference should seriously inquire and solemnly answer.

In making such answer, your Committee protests against confusion or identification of the legitimate work of the laymen, as prescribed by the Discipline, with the individual acts or views of laymen with reference to unification or any other issue now agitating their general church. The Laymen's Movement, as projected, modified and enlarged by successive General Conferences is a department of our church organization entitled to honor as imperative on preacher and layman alike, as the Sunday School, Missionary Society, or any other branch of the work of our beloved Church. It is indeed the latest expression of the general council of the Church—presumably its wisest—as to the most necessary alteration in our church economy in order better to conserve and direct its energies and adapt it to the changed conditions and demands of the twentieth century life in both the country and the town. No other department of the Church is doing or can do that which has been outlined and ordered under the head of lay activities. Easy to understand, sadly needed in most churches, conflicting little, if at all, with any other form of church effort, designed to relieve the pastor of much of his labor and give larger expression in deeds to the piety of the laity—yet the movement halts, gets no further generally than the naming of its leaders in the various conferences—and we wonder why. Several reasons might be given, but we are sure one of the chief obstacles to the progress of the movement is that the Church Conference to which its committees must report and through which its spirit must permeate the churches is so nearly obsolete. Might not the Church Conference be revived, if through the lay activity reports its scope be extended and its sessions made more interesting?

Brethren, think on this, and let us begin anew. Napoleon in the afternoon on the field of Marengo, said to one of his marshals: "We have lost a battle today, but we still have time to win another." So with the Laymen's Movement, we have failed signally, but we may begin again more earnestly and wisely and by degrees develop it and the Church Conference together into powerful forces in pushing forward the aims of our Methodism. Other issues may or may not seriously affect its influence or destiny. That it continue its mission of "spreading scriptural holiness" among men is of infinite importance. Hence the success or failure of a movement intended to re-energize, multiply and more definitely direct the spiritual and material forces of every congregation in it should be of deep concern to every loyal member of the Southern Methodist Church. The Committee on Lay Activities will ask for a special afternoon or night service at the next session of this Conference. The Committee nominates Dabney Lipscomb as Conference Lay Leader.

Respectfully submitted,

DABNEY LIPSCOMB,
for the Committee.

LAY ACTIVITIES, NO. 2.

The Committee on Lay Activities of this Conference have no sympathy with the Nashville-Chattanooga propaganda; are strongly opposed to it both as to purpose and plan. We are loyal to Methodism as it is, and in these unsettled times deplore and condemn any movement from any source which aims radically to alter our Methodist organism or doctrine.

Respectfully submitted,

DABNEY LIPSCOMB,
for the Committee.

Savior, more than life to me.

Minutes Approved—The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

Referred—J. H. Mitchell was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuate relation. A collection was taken for him which amounted to $71.75.

Joint Board—The Joint Board of Finance made Report No. 2, which was adopted as follows:

FINANCE, NO. 2.

Your Board believes the time has come to inaugurate a movement to raise an endowment fund of $250,000 in this Conference for the use and benefit of our conference claimants; to solve the problem of the proper pensioning, and care for its disabled and superannuated ministry. Justice and Christianity demand this. "If any provide not for his own and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel."

Your Board asks that we be allowed to place in the field a Commissioner to raise this $250,000. The Commissioner to be selected by this Board and to be under its control.

We are glad to announce to you the following donations: E. M. Fant, Coahoma, $1000; J. W. Waddy, Tupelo, $25.00. This $1025.00 your Board has decided to place with the General Board of Church Extension, to build churches in Southern Methodism. The interest, 4 per cent, to be used annually for our Conference claimants.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. THOMAS, Chairman.
WALTER E. STOKES, Secy.

Missions—The Board of Missions made the following report which was read and adopted:

MISSIONS.

In the midst of the madness and horror that have overspread the world the cause of missions has held on its way with increasing power. Its progress during the year, 1917, has been the best of the past three years. The fields where our work is located have not suffered any direct effects that would tend to interfere with the missionary enterprise. The testimony of the missionaries is that the people are even more responsive than ever and that the faith of the native Christians is still unshaken.

The income of the General Board for the first half of 1917 was 40 per cent greater than for the same period last year. The significance of this will appear when we stop to consider that the saving in interest alone will be sufficient to support a missionary and his family. This is the result of early collections and prompt remittances. Never before have so many charges paid up in full previous to the meeting of the District Conferences.

We are also glad to report a fine increase in Specials. The interest taken in the direct support of some particular object continues to deepen and spread. Many individuals are finding great joy in this personal relation to the missionaries, to the fields, and to the service. Yet it is safe to say that we have not realized more than one-tenth of the possibilities that await the right appeal and the proper method. We respectfully ask that the Specials for the ensuing year be applied to the "Emergency Fund" for China, which fund has been made necessary by the great advance in exchange and the increased cost of maintaining the missionary force in that field.

The Committee appointed by the General Board to consider the subject of self-support as it relates to the Mission Charges reported at the last session of the Board that there are 2,025 pastoral charges out of about 6,600 that receive aid from Conference Boards, and also that a large percentage of these charges are victims of poor stewardship and an inadequate financial system. This Committee recommend improved financial systems, the re-arrangement of pastoral charges with a view to self-support, and the making of applications for appropriations on a descending scale. We are glad to report that this is being done in our own Conference. In one District alone three mission charges have become self-supporting during the past year.

We call attention to the fact that in 1919 American Methodism comes to the end of its first century of organized missionary effort. The General Board of Missions has adopted a comprehensive, Church-wide plan for the celebration of this notable event. It is designed to carry the lessons and appeals of the Centenary into every Church and as far as may be to every individual member of the Church. We earnestly urge the Conference to enter into the plans and to co-operate with all the agencies at command to make the Centenary a worthy memorial of our first missionary century and a proper introduction into the far greater century that lies before a far greater Methodism.

We desire to emphasize again the matter of "an every member canvass" for missions in an imperative need at this time, as well as the requirement of our law, and we urge that every pastor shall see that this is systematically and consistently done. We desire to urge also a general observance of the Week of Prayer as fixed for the week preceding Easter Sunday.

The Board has elected Rev. A. T. McIlwain, Conference Missionary Secretary, and respectfully asks that he be appointed to that position. We also request the appointment of Rev. J. A. Bowen and Rev. J. H. Bell as Conference Evangelists.

Recognizing the trying conditions under which the world is suffering and the disturbed state of our own country because of the war, we would earnestly call upon all who believe in the saving power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to unite in bending every energy, not only to hold the lines steady, but also to advance as never before. Those who believe in the wisdom, the power and the love of God will not falter in the face of difficulties and dangers. Always the Church has rallied in the hour of extreme trial and shown her greatest courage and devotion in the midst of the fires. We, therefore, call upon all who love their country, who long and pray for universal brotherhood and for an abiding peace among nations, who hope to see the principles taught by Jesus Christ become the principles underlying all human society and ruling the national life of the world, to regard no effort too exhausting and no sacrifice too great for the fullest vitalization of all missionary agencies and for the completest possible mobilization of the forces of the Christian Church for the redemption of the world.

"To this end we implore sincere prayer, united intercession coupled with larger consecration and unstinted sacrificial giving."

FIFTH DAY—MEMORIAL SESSION.

Conference met in memorial session according to appointment, Dr. R. A. Meek in the chair. The Committee on Memoirs presented its report furnishing answer to Question 21, What preachers have died during the past year? The memoir of Rev. W. D. McCullough was read by Rev. W. M. Campbell, that of Rev. A. P. Leech by Rev. W. L. Duren and that of Rev. R. M. Davis by Rev. J. W. Dorman. Several of the brethren made brief remarks of love and appreciation and the memoirs were adopted as follows:

MEMOIRS.

Rev. W. D. McCullough.

Whitfield D. McCullough was born at Oxford, Miss., on January 21, 1860. But little information concerning his parents is available. His mother died when he was three years of age; and in his early childhood his father moved to Panola County, where he was reared to manhood on a farm. He was converted in the neighborhood in which he grew up and joined the Methodist Free Church, becoming intimately associated with its founder, Rev. A. B. Fly, and his brother, Rev. M. D. Fly. As to his early educational advantages, nothing definite is known. But having entered the ministry of the Church with which he had connected himself, he studied diligently under the direction of its leader, Rev. A. B. Fly, who was a very strong and capable man, and such was his aptitude for acquiring knowledge that he soon became remarkably well equipped for his life-work. Especially was he interested in questions of doctrine, and he became thoroughly familiar with the differences between the Calvinists and Arminians and the points at issue between the immersionists and pedo-baptists. He was unusually strong in the discussion of such themes, and to the end of his life he delighted in upholding the Methodist position touching them, in which he heartily believed, though it could not be said that he was a controversial preacher in any sense that was objectionable, his object always being to instruct and establish the members of his own denomination, rather than to disaffect the communicants in other folds.

In 1889, Brother McCullough became convinced that the field for doing good was larger in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, than in the Methodist Free Church, and, together with his friend and brother minister, the late Rev. A. J. Jones, he joined the North Mississippi Conference in its session at Holly Springs at the close of that year. One whose judgment is entitled to weight, says: "He was much the strongest man that ever entered the ministry of the Fly Church, and in doing so he was influenced by deep convictions and the highest motives. He was cordially welcomed in the new communion into which he came, and his career therein was a laborious and useful one. The following are the appointments that he served in the M. E. Church, South: 1890, Banner Circuit; 1891-2, Indianola; 1893-4, Sallis; 1895-6-7, Pickens; 1898, Batesville; 1899-1900, Cockrum; 1901-2, Black Hawk; 1903-4, Schlater; 1905, Louisville; 1906, Shaw; 1907-08, Jonestown; 1909-10, Leland; 1911-12, Eupora; 1913-14, Ruleville. In the fall of 1914, Brother McCullough was assigned to Moorhead, but left in a very short time to take charge of Iuka Station, which had been made vacant by the transfer of Rev. C. P. Moss to the Florida Conference. He labored there two years, though during the latter part his pastorate in that field, his health was quite feeble. In 1916 he was sent to the Shannon Circuit, but soon had to give up his work, probably never reaching more than one or two appointments, but holding on until his presiding elder could come to the first quarterly conference and relieve him.

In 1886, Brother McCullough was married to Miss Georgia A. Hawkins, of Holly Springs, Miss., the wedding taking place at Pine Valley, Miss., at the residence of Rev. D. E. Cannon, an uncle of the bride. Of this union six children—five sons and one daughter—were born, all of whom, together with their mother, are living, viz: L. Boyce McCullough, New York City; Burnard E. McCullough, Belzoni, Miss.; Walter A. McCullough, Interne King's County Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Jesse H. McCullough, Memphis, Tenn.; O. Mitchell McCullough, Little Rock, Ark., and Mrs. P. McMullen (Miss Clara McCullough), Shelby, Miss.

Brother McCullough had a splendid physique, being stalwart and possessed of unusual strength, and one would hardly have predicted that he would reach the end of his earthly pilgrimage at the early age of fifty-seven years; but alas! how little can we discern of the future. The malady with which he was seized during his pastorate at Iuka was Bright's disease, and the best medical skill was powerless to arrest its progress. He was faithfully treated by deeply interested local physicians, and tarried for a time in the Baptist Hospital at Memphis, where all that was possible was done; but soon after he reached Shannon, his last appointment, it became evident that his work was finished and that the end of his earthly life was near at hand. Facing the inevitable bravely, and with no words of complaint upon his lips, he surrendered his charge, and went to the home of his daughter at Shelby, Miss., where after lingering about six weeks, during which time he is said to have exhibited a strikingly sweet and patient spirit, he died at 6 o'clock on Saturday morning, March 10, 1917, his serious illness having covered a period of about twelve months.

Such, briefly stated, were the leading events, in the career of this active itinerant minister. Viewed from almost any standpoint, he was more than an ordinary man. His personality was strong and forceful, and his individuality was marked. He was no reed easily shaken by the wind; he had rather the sturdiness of the oak. His convictions were deep and firm, and there was never any difficulty in ascertaining where he stood on any question. Of the tact that represses and conceals one's real feelings, he had little; but he was honest, open, and straightforward. Popularity he did not seek, and the flexibility by which it is won in the largest measure he did not possess. The arts of demagoguery he despised, and he hated shams. He was a true friend, and could be trusted. His attachments were ardent and seldom changed. The friends of his early ministry, except as they passed into the great beyond, or as the circle was widened by the formation of new ones, were the friends of his later days.

The pulpit gifts of Brother McCullough made him an impressive and attractive preacher. He had a good presence, a pleasant voice, and a forceful, fluent utterance. His mind was clear and vigorous, and his messages were informing, stimulating, and helpful. The range of his discourses was wider than that of the average minister, and in them there was much variety. Besides being, as has been stated, an able expounder of important doctrines, he measured up well in his Sabbath sermons as a pastor, and was an effective revivalist. The people heard him gladly. He was never known to serve a charge in which he was not ranked high as a dispenser of God's precious Word.

But, best of all, Brother McCullough was a man of God. He had a sound experience and a living faith. One could not know him well without becoming convinced of this. His was a rugged nature, virile, outstanding, and aggressive; but back of his somewhat brusque exterior were a gentleness, a kindness, and a brotherliness that attested the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. Faultless he was not—perfection does not belong to human beings—but the trend of his life was strongly in the right direction, and he bore the marks of the Lord Jesus. If he made missteps, as most men do, he had the redeeming faculty of recovering himself, by the grace of God. There is no better place in which to take one's true measure than in the home—a religion that stands the home test will usually stand any test—and in that hallowed circle our friend won and held all hearts. A more devoted husband and father the writer has never known, and of his wife and children he was the loved and revered prophet, priest, and king. How these bereaved ones will miss him until they overtake him in the City of God!

It was beautiful and inspiring the way this stricken toiler acquiesced in the will of the Heavenly Father and approached the river of death, which he knew could not be far away. His presiding elder, Rev. T. H. Lipscomb, wrote the writer, when he left Shannon with the shadow of eternity upon him, of his impressive resignation and wonderful serenity of spirit. Rev. W. M. Campbell, our pastor at Shelby, sent us soon after he had passed from earth the following message: "Brother McCullough was here about six weeks before he died, and I was with him a great deal of the time. It inspired me and strengthened my faith to be associated with this splendid and courageous minister. I knew he was a strong preacher, and about a week or ten days before the end came, I asked him for a few outlines of his favorite sermons; and, as he proceeded amid his suffering, to talk from James 1:25, the text of one of his last discourses, his mind flashed and he caught the old-time fire. When he had finished, he broke down, and, while weeping, said: 'Campbell, how I do wish I could live and preach!' If he spoke of death as fearing it, I never heard of it. He went to the end as only a child of God can." The night before he passed away, he whispered to the anxious wife beside him, "It is all over." Upon being asked, "What was over, he said: 'I see Jesus and the great white throne. Tell Clara and the boys to meet me.'" A few hours later "the weary wheels of life stood still," and the immortal spirit was gone.

On the next day, the holy Sabbath, the tenantless body was laid away at Shelby to await the resurrection morn, the obsequies, as the deceased had requested, being conducted by Rev. J. R. Countiss, who was licensed to preach under his ministry and whom he called his "preacher boy," assisted by Rev. W. M. Campbell. The throng in attendance was reported to be one of the largest ever assembled in the Mississippi Delta on a similar occasion, and the floral offerings, were numerous and handsome, betokening the love of many sorrowing hearts. Thus lived and wrought and triumphed another of the spiritual sons of Wesley.

"Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!"

R. A. MEEK.

Rev. Alfred P. Leech.

Rev. Alfred P. Leech, son of Ephraim M. and Betsy E. (Wolf) Leech, was born in Lowndes County, Miss., on November 8, 1827, and died in the city of Columbus in the same county, on March 26, 1917. On September 12, 1847, he was married to Miss Sophronia C. Harrell, and to them were born eight children, four sons and four daughters. One son and all the daughters survive him. One of the sons was the late Rev. James A. Leech, of the North Mississippi Conference. His wife went home to heaven after a long period of suffering on April 6, 1904. On September 30, 1906, he was married again. This time to Mrs. Sudie (Commander) Neil, who cared for him faithfully and tenderly through the last decade of his life. At times it seemed doubtful as to which one would go first, but he leaves his widow in age and feebleness extreme to mourn his going away.

On Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in August, 1840, at "Old Tabernacle Camp Ground," in Pickens County, Alabama, Bro. Leech was genuinely converted and joined the Methodist Church. He was licensed to preach on October 20, 1860; was ordained deacon by Bishop Wightman on July 15, 1866, and was ordained elder by Bishop Paine on July 31, 1870. He applied for admission to the North Mississippi Conference in 1870, but on account of his age, and the size and dependence of his family he was not admitted. He was disappointed, but not disheartened by the failure to gain admission to the Conference. So he went back home and as a local preacher he labored consistently and faithfully until 1884 when he was finally admitted to the Conference on trial. In the fourteen years of his service he filled eleven circuits: Whitefield, Athens, Richmond, Horn Lake, Mount Vernon, Myrtle, Athens, Pheba, Sparta, Tatum, and Water Valley. At the Conference in 1898 he was given the superannuate relation—but in his retirement he retained the energy and the interest of his active years.

Bro. Leech had limited educational advantages, and this coupled with the lateness in beginning his Conference career necessarily placed him at disadvantage in his work. He could never rise to the eminence of leadership in the Conference, but through native ability, energy, pluck and consecration he achieved a worthy place, and a fair measure of success in his ministerial work. He was a good man and he loved his Church with all the passion of which his soul was capable. And after all life is not to be gauged by place, neither are the rewards which abide proportioned to gifts, for "the Lord looketh upon the heart." Through hardship and disappointment he was true to his commission, and in his last days his greatest grief was that, through age and infirmity he had to be deprived of any active participation in the work of the Church. He suffered much, but patiently endured it all until in God's providence the call came to go. Triumphantly, joyfully the old Circuit Rider went to be with God and the loved ones that had gone on before, and when for us "the last battle's fought, and the last victory won" we shall expect from him a glorious welcome to the Father's house, and there we will join with him "in singing praise to Father, Son, and ever-blessed Spirit in that world that shall never end."

WM. L. DUREN.

Rev. Robert M. Davis.

Rev. Robert M. Davis, son of M. F. and Josephine Davis, was born in Carroll County, Tenn., and died in Byhalia, Miss., on May 20, 1917. He was educated at Chapel Hill College. Brother Davis was converted in the camps at Shelbyville, Tenn., during the war between the States. He was licensed to preach at Chapel Hill in 1869, and admitted on trial in the traveling connection in 1872 at Corinth, Miss. He was ordained deacon at Aberdeen, Miss., by Bishop Doggett in 1874, and elder at Sardis in 1876 by Bishop Pierce.

Brother Davis gave all his life to the work within the bounds of the North Mississippi Conference, serving the following charges: 1873-4, Lafayette Springs Circuit; 1875, Batesville; 1876, Chulahoma; 1877-79, Cockrum; 1880, Batesville; 1881, Cockrum; 1882-3, Chulahoma; 1884-5, Kossuth; 1886, Bolivar; 1887-8, Abbeville; 1889-90, Chulahoma; 1891, Toccopola; 1892, Lexington and Tchula; 1893-4-5, West; 1897-1900, Byhalia; 1901, Olive Branch. At the close of 1901, he asked for the superannuate relation which was granted. He was elected to the General Conference of 1886 and served with credit to himself and his Conference.

The first characteristic of the mind of Brother Davis was his careful attention to things usually regarded as insignificant. To his horse, the cattle, the garden, the orchard, he gave every possible care. To him, they were all the gifts of God and were worthy of the most considerate attention on the part of man as means by which he might glorify God. Beginning with the study of minor matters, he soon acquired the power to master greater things. In mature life his powers of analysis were remarkable. He talked familiarly and with wonderful clearness on abstruse matters that have staggered the most astute minds for ages. The problem of sin in a world dominated by a supremely righteous mind became transparent under the glow of his unusual intellect. Points of difficulty in great systems of thought caught his attention and held it until a thoroughly satisfactory solution was reached. The conflict between Calvinism and Arminianism especially interested him. He searched through masses of controversy on these themes, cast out rubbish and fallacies and garnered at last a great storehouse of truth.

His method was analytical and logical, and this method he used to the enrichment of the unusual gifts with which nature had endowed him. It was by the sheer force of his intellect that he at first won the attention and interest of thoughtful people. Later, he gripped them as with bands of steel by his sunny disposition and quaint humor. He was rarely gifted in conversation, and might be found in the center of a company at any conference or gathering he attended. To no class was he more attractive than to young ministers who hung on his words as on those of a seer and prophet. Having no sons of his own, he seemed to look on these sons in the gospel with peculiar affection, nor did his devotion surpass theirs for him. His honored and useful career seemed to them a portent of what their own might be by consecration and perseverance.

The tender affection of Brother Davis was most beautifully manifested in his home. The stranger or guest in that home had but to hear him call the name of wife or daughter to know that a great heart beat within the bosom of this manly man. Tall, strong, rugged, he was as a tower of strength for the care and protection of the women of his household. A more harmonious and soul-comforting home than his, it has never been the privilege of the writer to enter.

As a Christian, Brother Davis reflected in beautiful sincerity the simplicity and transparency of the character of Christ. In large measure, his simple dignity and remarkable poise enabled him to return for the second and third time to a charge without encountering opposition. Irritation and dissatisfaction had no place in his generous soul. He served hard charges in the main, his salary rarely going beyond $500 per year, but he managed his business wisely and served with the whole armor of God to the end.

As a preacher, Brother Davis was at his best. When he came to deliver the Lord's message, carefully wrought out in his own masterful mind and permeated with his ripe religious experience, it was indeed "good news" to the heart hungry for salvation. With unsailable logic he linked his premises and builded tier on tier from introduction to conclusion till conviction of its truth was forced on the heart of the hearers.

A year and a half ago, it was my good fortune to be a guest in his home during a district conference. During those memorable days, we had many refreshing talks on the Church and her doctrines. On my departure he said, "The time is short. When you hear that I have departed, will you not come and assist in laying my body to rest?" In accordance with that promise, on May 20th, 1917, I assisted his pastor, Rev. A. C. McCorkle and Rev. R. A. Tucker in the simple funeral service that preceded the consignment of his body to the grave where it shall sleep until the resurrection in the last day. Peace to his ashes and comfort to his bereaved wife and daughter.

SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, NOV. 26, 1917.

Opening—Conference met at the appointed hour with Rev. J. W. Dorman, by request of Bishop Murrah in the chair. The morning worship was led by Rev. H. C. Morehead who led in prayer and read from the second chapter of Philippians.

Minutes Approved—The minutes of the session of Saturday afternoon and of the Memorial Session were read and approved.

Conference Treasurer—On motion a committee of three, viz: J. B. Randolph, J. E. Thomas, and W. D. Wendel, was appointed to consider and report at the next Conference upon the advisability of having a Conference Treasurer to handle all funds.

American Bible Society—The American Bible Society Board made the following report which was read and adopted:

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine and for instruction and reproof, that all may be furnished fully unto every good word and work."

We, your Committee, are persuaded that no other day since the first settling of our happy nation has ever brought the demands upon us for the use of the Bible that the present day reveals. We feel profoundly gratified for the fact that thousands of Bibles have been purchased this year for the soldiers which have not come through the assessment laid on the Church. We also feel grateful to the many Churches that have responded to the assessments made upon them by this Board, and we realize now, that of a well defined necessity, we as pastors of a great Church must double our diligence if possible. The crisis is on. We, therefore, advise that each pastor and official Board blend their energies to pay their assessment in full. While our American Bible Society is running its machinery day and night to furnish millions of extra copies for our soldier boys and others, we must make strenuous efforts on our part to meet them on half way ground in this great work.

We insist, therefore, that the pastors give early attention to the American Bible Society collection. Also we report the payments in advance of last year.

Sunday Schools—The Sunday School Board made Report Number 2, which was read and adopted as follows:

SUNDAY SCHOOLS NO. 2.

Our efficient Field Secretary has done institute work in 145 churches during the year, ordered 450 books for officers and teachers and distributed approximately 10,000 pieces of literature. The larger part of the work has been done in the country schools.

We have 28 teacher training classes with an enrollment of 236. The year-book shows that every district in our Conference is organized according to the requirements of the General Board. We are sorry to state, however, that this organization is not as effective as it should be. Most of our schools are running the entire year. A large number of country schools have bought modern equipment. A few have built additional rooms to meet the demands of the departmental organization.

Five district institutes have been held for our elementary workers. Miss Minnie E. Kennedy, General Elementary Superintendent, did a work that will tell on the future of our Church. Mr. A. L. Dietrich, Divisional Field Secretary, has rendered valuable help by keeping in touch with the work throughout the year. The General Board has given aid without which the work would not have been possible.

In view of the present crisis in the foreign fields we heartily recommend that our Conference concentrate upon Missionary instruction and that the offerings be sent to the General Board in order that relief may be given to our Missionaries.

The future of the Sunday School depends upon efficient teaching. We recommend therefore that special emphasis shall be given during the year to teacher training.

Sabbath Observance—The Committee on Sabbath observance made the following report which was read and adopted:

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Sabbath day stands out in bold relief as an expression of both the love and the wisdom of Almighty God exercised toward the children of men.

There has never been a time since the dawn of creation when there was not a place in the mind of God for the Sabbath day, nor can the time ever come for its elimination from the activities of men while the factors of love and wisdom which combined to give it birth continue to regulate the affairs of the human family.

The Sabbath day is today, as ever of old, and as it ever shall be, the gem of all days since time began to run, since days began to be numbered. God is its author, the source of its holy light and the hope of its perpetuity for all time to come.

Wicked men may attempt to becloud its beams of love-light in order that they may provide for themselves dark rooms in which they may serve the purposes of satan, but their self-inflicted darkness can but result in their final undoing. The very atmosphere which we breathe seems to be charged with temptations to trespass against the sanctity of the Sabbath, and the will-power of the masses seems to be crumbling under the constant fire of the guns of convenience. Even church members deliberately plan to make the Sabbath day their starting day and their returning day on long journeys. If gasoline is exhausted it is promptly replenished, if break-downs occur repair shops are sought out and business transactions proceed as if no thought of sacred vows ever entered either head or heart.

In the awful onrush of this big, busy world we find it an easy matter to make allowances for our acknowledged shortcomings, but just what the answer shall be in the judgment day remains to be determined. In the face of existing laws, both human and divine, no man can wilfully and persistently violate the sanctity of the Sabbath day without constituting himself an outlaw, and without surrendering his credentials to sonship with God.

Automatically the hand that thrusts the Sabbath aside opens the flood gates to fields of vice. In view of what has been said and much more that could be said, we beg to offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, First, That as ministers of the gospel of the Son of God, and as leaders of the hosts of Israel, we ministers and laymen refrain, as far as possible, in thought, in word and in deed from everything that could in any sense be construed as a wilful disregard of the rightful demands of the Sabbath.

Second, That we exert our best endeavors to influence others to follow in the good old fashioned way to the end of our earthly labors among the children of men, and to God be all the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. EVANS,
for the Committee.

Spiritual Interests—The Committee on Spiritual Interests made the following report which was read and adopted:

We have had approximately 5,000 conversions within the Conference this year. Worldliness is on the decrease, while Godliness is slowly but surely coming to its own. The distressing times seem to have awakened an interest in spiritual things that has never been known before. Church attendance, especially among men and boys has increased; the Bible is being read by more people; liberality in Church support is growing, and there seems to be a greater hungering than ever before for Gospel preaching.

While all these are glorious signs of the times there are yet sore needs to be met. There are but few more prayer meetings than there are pastoral charges in the Conference; family altars in Christian homes are exceptions. In many sections of our Church comparatively few of our Church officers lead in public prayer, and often these are Sunday School Superintendents. A willingness on the part of the membership to testify for Christ is far too rare.

These conditions must be remedied by the pastors, who become the spiritual leaders of the flock to which they have been assigned. Their mission is more than to deliver spiritual messages, as great as this may be, but it is to radiate the spirit of the Master everywhere. Therefore, we would urge the pastor to pray in the homes, when at all practical, teach Christianity privately as well as from the pulpit and to demonstrate scriptural holiness by their own lives.

We are glad to state that our evangelists are doing all in their power to re-enforce the work of the pastors in all their Church activities. Their work is telling.

In view of the above mentioned needs we would submit the following:

Resolved, That we covenant together to pray and work for a revival of vital religion in every pastoral charge the coming year, looking to God for at least the ten thousand conversions.

2. That we strive to extend this revival into the homes of our people and awaken an interest in family religion which is so much needed.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. BOWEN, Chairman.

OLIN RAY, Secretary.

Evangelism—The Committee on Evangelism made the following report which was adopted after reading:

EVANGELISM.

This has been a great year in the spiritual awakening of the Church. The pastors as well as our evangelists give testimony to an unusual quickening of the spiritual consciousness of the Church. This is manifested by the increased activities of all the agencies of the Church such as the Sunday School, the missionary organizations, and the prayer life of the Church.

Our Conference Evangelists, J. A. Bowen and J. H. Bell, came in from the field of battle against sin and wickedness with triumphant faith and glowing spirits. They report to your Committee how the Lord has blessed the word and how their preaching has been blessed of God in saving sinners and in quickening the Church into deeper spiritual life. They lay special emphasis on the increased prayer life of the Churches where they have labored.

Along the same line comes the testimony of our General Evangelist, Rev. W. M. McIntosh, who has held some great meetings with about 1500 conversions, and in all of these meetings there has been a great awakening of the spiritual life of the Church. It seems to be the general conviction of the pastors that the spiritual quickening of believers sends a spiritual thrill through the ministry and laity, that tokens the coming of the greatest revival fires to burst out in the near future perhaps we have ever witnessed. Our evangelists have wrought well and have done a greatly needed work. They are very helpful to the pastorate in that the relation between pastor and evangelist is coming to be appreciated as one of mutual helpfulness. Besides the evangelists are stimulating the evangelistic spirit in the life, spirit, and preaching of many pastors. So we heartily recommend the reappointment of J. A. Brown and J. H. Bell as our Conference Evangelists for the ensuing year. Also we heartily commend the work of the Rev. W. M. McIntosh and recommend to the General Board of Evangelism his reappointment to that work. Signed by,

W. S. LAGRONE, Chairman.

W. M. YOUNG, Secretary.

Education—The Board of Education made the following report which was read and adopted:

EDUCATION.

We have heard with pleasure the message of Dr. Stonewall Anderson, and we heartily agree with him that we owe it both to ourselves and the nation to make our educational enterprises as strong as the strongest and as good as the best, in order that the spirit of Southern Americanism and Southern Methodism may be preserved.

The rapid development of our great universities at Atlanta and Dallas fill us with gratitude. At whatever sacrifice, we must equip these institutions, endow them and patronize them.

The number of ministerial students is more than 100 per cent above the number ever enrolled in the history of our Church. The other departments show about the same average increase in the number of students.

More than $200,000 has been added to the endowment fund of Emory University during the present year. More cash has been sent in from Mississippi than from any other state, save one. We commend our Commissioner, Rev. Robt. Selby for this splendid record and renew to him our pledges of loyalty and interest.

Conditions at Millsaps College are encouraging. While we have suffered a loss of patronage, because of the war, we have comparatively as many in attendance as any other institution in Mississippi. We have heard with pleasure the messages of President Watkins and Prof. Sullivan and Commissioner M. M. Black. We rejoice in the progress that has been made and pledge assurance of continued co-operation. A "Greater Millsaps" means a "Greater Methodism" in Mississippi. We recommend the re-election of Dr. R. A. Meek, J. B. Streater, W. L. Duren and J. T. Lamb as trustees of Millsaps College.

The phenomenal increase in the number of students at Grenada College makes additional buildings a necessity. The school is doing good work in spite of crowded conditions.

Rev. T. M. Brownlee, Commissioner, gives a good account of his labors. We are proud of what has been done.

We request the appointment of Rev. J. R. Countiss as President of Grenada College and that of Rev. T. M. Brownlee as Commissioner. We nominate J. H. Felts, B. P. Jaco, J. E. Cunningham and E. M. Fant for positions on the Board of Trustees. We request, further, that the Conference authorize the Board of Trustees to proceed with the construction of such new buildings as may be needed.

In the general interest of our educational work your Board unanimously urges the following:

1. That "College Day" be observed in the Sunday Schools and that the Conference Secretary of Education be requested to provide a program for this special service.

2. That we approve the plan of the General Board to have an Educational Conference in 1918 and that J. R. Countiss and T. H. Lipscomb be appointed as delegates from this Conference.

3. That the sum of $200.00 (or more if necessary) be appropriated in support of an Efficiency Conference to be held in Grenada.

4. That to the regular assessments $200.00 be added for expenses of the Board, and $500.00 for ministerial education, 20 per cent of which shall be sent to the General Board, the balance to be administered by the Conference Board.

5. That Rev. T. H. Lipscomb be appointed Conference Secretary of Education.

Books and Periodicals—The Committee on Books and Periodicals presented its report which was recommitted on account of its failure to include the connectional literature of the Church. On its being presented a second time in the same form, an amendment was offered from the floor commending this literature. The amendment carried and the amended report was then adopted as follows:

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

From information submitted to us by the chairman of the Book Committee, we learn that despite the perplexities growing out of the constant advance in the cost of materials used by the publishing agents, they are again able to report a very prosperous year. It is still lamentable to note that from so large a membership we have so few who are regular subscribers to our papers and periodicals, and that the subscription list of the Christian Advocate has decreased more than 1,000 during the past year. We are glad to note that the financial loss in the publication of the Christian Advocate, the Methodist Review and the Epworth Era is less than in previous years.

We are pleased to have had Dr. Ivey with us during this Conference and we commend his faithfulness, efficiency and fairness as editor of the Christian Advocate. We also note with pleasure the visit of Dr. H. M. DuBose, Book Editor, and call the attention of our people to the brilliancy of his splendid Methodist Review. The Epworth Era and Missionary Voice deserve and should have the support of our people.

We are informed that at the October meeting of the Publishing Committee of the New Orleans Christian Advocate the business affairs concerning the publishing of this great paper were found to be in splendid condition. However owing to the high cost of material, the lack of sufficient subscribers and the great number of delinquents that must soon be dropped it was decided to put on a whirl-wind campaign beginning Sunday, January 27, 1918, continuing for one week. This campaign will be carried on in all of the patronizing conferences. The North Mississippi conference is asked to add to their present list 1500 new subscriptions. To the end that this may be properly cared for we recommend:

1st. That the pastors give this matter due recognition, mention the plan from the pulpit and organize a committee to make an every member canvass.

2nd. That the pastors write for a list of present subscribers and delinquents that renewals may be made promptly and delinquents be given an opportunity to pay up along with this effort to secure new subscribers.

3rd. That special attention shall be given to the official members of the Church, if possible securing a subscription from each of them.

4th. We further recommend that the 1500 subscriptions be apportioned to the different districts as follows:

Aberdeen	205
Columbus	175
Corinth	200
Durant	200
Greenville	165
Holly Springs	185
Sardis	185
Winona	165

We here thank Mr. C. O. Chalmers for his faithful and efficient services as publisher and are deeply grateful to the editor, Dr. R. A. Meek, who has so completely dedicated his brilliant intellect to the use of the Church, and has given us a paper that not only stands for Methodism but among the great periodicals of our Church as a moulder of sentiment it stands today without a peer. We ask the reappointment of Dr. R. A. Meek as editor.

We renominate W. W. Woollard, T. H. Lipscomb and J. H. Felts for membership on the Publishing Committee of the New Orleans Christian Advocate.

Church Extension—The Board of Church Extension made the following report which was read and adopted:

CHURCH EXTENSION.

With the passing of the years, more and more do we see the great need of the department of the Board of Church Extension. If our churches were always compelled to raise the cash money from their own members to build, they would seldom erect church structures that would more than meet their present demands. The needs of the future would be left unprovided for. It is the observation of your Board that one congregation is about as able as another to build a church commensurate with their present and future needs. If one congregation is wealthier than another, it is almost invariably true that the needs of larger church accommodations will increase in direct proportions as the wealth of the one congregation increases over the wealth of the other. Hence the almost universal need of a well financed Board of Church Extension.

Our Corresponding Secretary reports that there has been a steady increase of slightly over $17,000 per year in the receipts on the assessments; and that in the beginning of this quadrennium the loan fund capital was $560,582.63. The General Conference of 1914 requested the church through the General Board to increase this amount to $1,000,000. To do this the Corresponding Secretary had $434,417.37 to raise. On the 31st of last March there remained of this large amount to be raised only $23,538.01. During the year ending March 31st, 1917, the General Board received on the loan fund $171,832.91. The least amount that the Corresponding Secretary has raised for this fund in any one year is $110,853.56. Thus we see from these figures that the Secretary will carry the loan fund capital far beyond $1,000,000 goal set by our last General Conference.

The General Sunday School Board has directed that the Sunday School birthday offerings go to the Sunday School Loan Fund. Your Board urges our pastors and Sunday School Superintendents to see that these funds are not diverted from their proper channels.

Your Board feels assured that the Conference will heartily endorse the department of Church Architecture recently established by the General Board. We urge our pastors who contemplate building either a church or a parsonage to avail themselves of the useful information furnished by this department.

We urge our pastors to apply for and freely use the maps and other Church Extension literature sent out gratis by the General Board.

We request the presiding elders for the ensuing year to give at their District Conferences representatives of the Board an opportunity to present the cause of Church Extension.

The receipts on assessments for the past ten years have shown a steady increase. In the year 1907, ten years ago, there was paid to the treasurer of your Conference Board of Church Extension the sum of $3269. This year the receipts on assessments and specials are $6344.89. This increased amount gives us a clear idea of the growing appreciation by our church membership of this department of our church work.

We are gratified to know that the General Board of Church Extension is working on a schedule of insurance whereby the church can carry her own insurance at actual cost, and we hereby express the hope that the General Conference will give to this important matter the consideration that it deserves.

Epworth Leagues—The Epworth League Board made its report which was read and adopted as follows:

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

Recognizing the need of some means of developing our young people in active service and preparing them for efficient Church work, the Epworth League was organized with a distinct mission for the boys and girls of adolescent age and the young people who are anxious to be of use.

We note with interest the splendid work now being done by the several Leagues throughout the Conference. We ask the hearty co-operation of the presiding elders and pastors in the efforts of the Board to undertake forward movements and in developing a spirit of sympathy with the respective workers who will be asked by the Board to undertake the organization and strengthening of League Chapters in the several charges. We would call your attention to the campaign which started Nov. 1st, known as "BIG DRIVE," and the goal of which is "An Epworth League in every pastoral charge and every Chapter a standard Epworth League." This campaign will end April 1st, 1918.

A very interesting and instructive League Conference was held in the Central Church, at Columbus in July of this year, and we are hoping to make our conference or our part in the Efficiency Conference of greater worth next year. That this may be accomplished we urge all pastors to encourage their young people to attend.

We wish to thank Bro. Ralph E. Nollner, Assistant Secretary from the General Officers at Nashville, for his valued services, and note with pleasure his presence at this session of our North Mississippi Conference.

We ask the Conference to allow an assessment of $500.00 for the work of the Board to meet its expenses for more aggressive work.

R. P. NEBLETT, Secretary.

B. P. Jaco was elected to the Board of Missions in place of W. L. Duren, resigned.
